no man can reveal to you aught but that which already lies half asleep in the dawning of your knowledge . . .

if he is indeed wise he does not bid you enter the house of his wisdom, but rather leads you to the threshold of your own mind

Dear Tina,
 It couldn't decide whether to sign beside Dr. or Miz Raney, there's more room here. This was too great a year but French was definitely a high point in the year. Also being inducted into the French and the National Honor Society. I'm sure I'll never forget all the stuff we did in Chemistry, and so our great night on the town last night of Jr-Sr (whoopie...). Hope fully well be in some classes next year so we can complain together.

miss karen bush

See you when the alcohol oxidizes, Suzie mrs laurie knight

Hi Tina,
 when I think of you I think of Tina, the person you are a very rational person. Continue to be as you are, knowing you are indeed been very rewarding.
 Have an enjoyable summer.
 Sincerely,
 Mrs. J. Clayton

moon beams breaking the infinite upper darkness - stars glittering the sky like a shattered window pane gazing at the towering lights, flooding the grass with various shapes and sizes

i encounter night, a novel ending of each day.

Look Into the Eyes of a Baby Child
Look into the eyes of a baby child, what do you see Outside his head the worlds spinning wild-he's waiting for what it's gonna bring One day the wind blew open his door set little baby flying free Now his cares are known no more and his only love is the life he leads The only thing he ever knew was the touch of his mama's gentle hand Now little babe is lost and blue, and his only love is the lonely land But he's happy and free-seeking the shade of an apple tree Will you be here when he's where you are now, searching for someone's hand to hold Making his way back in, somehow, from his long and lost life in the cold To you now he's worn and weary, from a hapless history Fast approaching he seems dreary He will always look the same to me, there he sits he will keep you yearning Everytime you hear his name Now the little babe is lost and learning, the trick and the trait of every game Someday he will see That the world's not what he wanted it to be.
Look into my eyes.

sun-filled days and lollipop smiles get by in the world with your wits and your wiles. for even the snowman will melt by and by with no time left for the tears that you cry.

time lost

oh! how true the hour glass for looking at time is much like looking at the sand we cannot see each grain passing through to lost time, but can only see the resulting hill of grains.

far above
the ruin and decay, it shines make a wish the mother tells the child, for sometimes even dreams can come true. and the child wishes for toys and candy.
far away a young girl makes a wish and in the forlorn rooms of a resthome, an old woman sees the star and wishes.
sometimes even dreams can come true
the mother said,
and far above,
the star shines brightly, and then flickers out.

the silence that separates us - feels warm sometimes, transmits a message of sorts, and conveys an inner beauty the silence that separates us - brings us together.

studying the tapestry on my jeans and all at once the telephone rings - on the other end a cry for help and a prayer for mercy the music roars in the background scene a person lost in a spaced dream a cause that seems as lost as man i give as much as i humanly can but to no avail -

i sit and listen as a funeral dirge drums drearily through my head as the gray curse looms with dread about us all i watch the smoke curl up in never ending spirals to the sky, it has to be this way house of gladness

house of sorrows

house of nightmares and of no tomorrow . . .

our place on the hill when the sun says goodnight the wind blows a paper across the dying grass of winter you can hear the faint bouncing of a lone basketball soon to be forgotten the normal people laugh at us and go home to their warm houses coffee or maybe hot chocolate but we prefer the wind the last fingers of the sun reaching towards us as if to say i love you a dead leaf blows past all brown and crinkley we know the trees are now without their green dancing dresses.

i walk along the chrystal dawn don't know why but i ramble on, sad and lonely, cold and hurt this day i only dream of yesterday dreams of memories passed away but, those never happened anyway forgotten in my lonely shell and i shall drift away
- into loneliness

bright lights flashing neon signs all the forced gaiety filling our minds tomorrow is coming so don't stop and look, it will make you want.

life is a rowboat floating you away an endless chain of thought in vain in measures of day by day can you relate to the fate of a sailor and find yourself drowned in the sea or earn your bread like the thread of a tailor the one that made you and me life is free, we need no paddles to row us home from the storm to the shore if freedom with you - then it really don't matter to ask yourself what your living for - try to let no line define you or mark you of your bounds for the earth is a sea of industry and you're what it turns around through life's sweet loom and through her womb then you're living.

late night moves amidst the smoke,
an old piano,
an older joke,
a can of beer,
a bottle of gin,
some may lose
and some may win.
a deck of cards,
a cigarette,
let's remember before we forget

THERE IS ALWAYS ONE THAT GETS AWAY....

Gene Allcott

activities when reminiscing, details of events may fade but memories of people will remain sharp, for with them there was a common search for expression and when the search intensified, we strove together,

enjoyed together, and it began to mean more than just something for the record.

seniors, surprised that their drifting has brought them so far, with so much farther to go. there are still friends to be lost in the crowd, and friends to be found in between the losing. there are bargains to be made-with people, with ourselves, and with all of life.
but bargains are not always cheap.
and graduation, the goal we've made our way to,
is not just farewells, or tears, or promises
soon to be forgotten.
it is just proof that there are other goals to reach, other places to go,
and other lives to live.

with a variety in the Wonderful world of Shoes

It all began about 18 months ago, in and out of school. Some of the stars in the school, both athletically and socially, got together and formed the Wolf Demon Club. For most of last year, the Club's activities came on weekend parties and functions. This year, however, the club joined the school in various projects to bring about improvements. Our history is a short one, but we hope we have shown the community how to be helpful while having a good time. '72 is our last school year together, but we all will remain friends. We leave many memories.

the world is a beautiful place to be born into if you don't mind a touch of hell now and then just when everything is fine because even in heaven they don't sing all the time
 the world is a beautiful place to be born into if you don't mind people dying all the time or maybe only starving some of the time which isn't half so bad if it isn't you oh the world is a beautiful place to be born into if you don't much mind a few dead minds in the higher places or a bomb or two now and then in your upturned faces or such other improprieties as our name brand society is prey to with its men of distinction and its men of extinction and its priests and other patrolmen and its various segregations and congressional investigations and other constipations that our fool flesh is heir to yes the world is the best place of all for a lot of things as making the fun scene and making the love scene and making the sad scene and singing low songs and having inspirations and walking around looking at everything and smelling flowers and goosing statues and even thinking and kissing people, making babies and wearing pants and wearing hats and dancing and going swimming in rivers on picnics in the middle of the summer and just generally yes living it up but then right in the middle of it comes the smiling mortician lawrence ferleghetti

Tina,
Hope no one ever finds out about what that group did in the lonely Hearts Club. It would be rather embarrassing even when we didn't really want to. I'll see you next year - maybe even in the same class. Nancy El

Tina,

Exams have so completely exhausted my mind that I lack words for once.
French was...well.....

After approximately 180 calls at approximately 8:01, P.M., I've just about my golden voice, which is a lot more than I can say about most they always think I'm my mother which isn't the best need out any formal salutations at the beginning of this blob of message, but I'm sure that, 20 years from now, you'll want out of things to say. By now, everyone knows and recognizes instantly of the people I ever talk to on at your house the phone, because I've heard lately. Not the worst. Did you notice that I left ribbles. I would leave out my name at the end of this to know who wrote this and what I looked like in 1972.
